

Ammerdown

HOSPITALITY • PEACE • RECONCILIATION

Quarterly Supplement January - April 2022

We welcome you back to Ammerdown in the brand new year of 2022.

This quarter we have some well known courses such as 'The Ammerdown Spring Break' and 'Silver Jewellery', as well as Malcolm Guite taking us on a journey through the Psalms and Dave Tomlinson leading this year's Easter Retreat. We also offer plenty of opportunities to meet with others. As always, we hope there is something for everyone! Please check out our website's 'What's On' page for courses beyond March.

To Book...

Our new online Booking System is on its way! Until then, please email admin@ammerdown.org or call 01761 433709 to book your place.

Soul of Leadership

Margaret Benefiel and Margie Buchanan-Smith
Monday 10 - Thursday 13 January
Please arrive for 10am, course finishes after lunch.
£3800 over 18 Months

The 6 R's of Sanctuary (Year 1)

The second residential focuses on how leadership efficacy is enhanced as leaders intentionally take time apart from their leadership context to engage in spiritual practices. This residential will share learning gained from leadership, theology, and spirituality studies as a means to teach participants a spiritually-connected and grounded way of leadership.

There will be a second Soul of Leadership Course
at Ammerdown in the future.
Please contact the office for details.

Our book this month is Desmond Tutu's: 'No Freedom without Forgiveness'. 'Ubuntu speaks of the very essence of being human. We say "Hey, so-and-so has ubuntu." Then you are generous, you are hospitable, you are friendly and caring and compassionate. You share what you have. It is to say, "My humanity is caught up, is inextricably bound up, in yours." We belong in a bundle of life. We say, "A person is a person through other persons." We continue our conversation about racial justice.

Poetry, Protest and Witness in uncertain times

Ambrose Musiyiwa
Saturday 26 March
Please arrive by 10am, course ends at 4pm.
Suggested Donation £25
Day Course - D1222

Includes morning coffee, lunch and afternoon tea.

Covid has made us more aware of the injustices in our world. In these times of social unrest and Black Lives Matter protests, poetry offers a resource to explore the relationship between activism and connection. Join poet and editor, Ambrose Musiyiwa, for a poetry workshop (in the morning), followed by readings (in the afternoon).

Participants will have the opportunity to explore poetry capable of influencing social change, through a series of reflections, exercises and writing prompts. In addition, participants will have the opportunity to be in conversation with poets from the Black Lives Matter: Poems for a New World anthology (2020).

This workshop is free and for all levels and abilities – absolutely no writing experience required. All you need is a passion for justice and an interest in sharing your views through creativity. Black Lives Matter: Poems for a New World, published in November 2020, presents poems and short prose from around the world responding to Black Lives Matter.

March

Rev Narinder Tegally

Sunday 27 March

Please arrive by 3pm, course ends at 4:30pm.

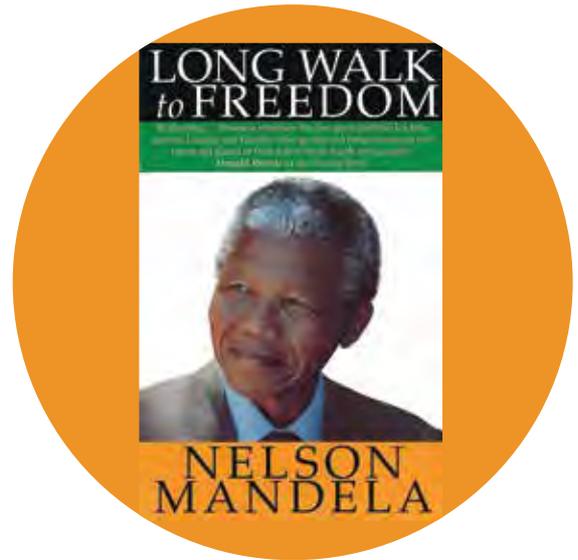

Suggested Donation £5

Day Course - D1322

Includes tea and coffee.

We continue exploring South African writings with Nelson Mandela's: 'The Long Walk to Freedom'. Nelson Mandela is one of the great moral and political leaders of our time: an international hero whose lifelong dedication to the fight against racial oppression in South Africa won him the Nobel Peace Prize and the presidency of his country.

We reflect on his story and our own understanding of racial justice.

Spring Break

Gwyneth Evans and Lynn Douglas

Monday 28 March - Friday 1 April

Please arrive by noon, course ends with lunch.

R - £575

Residential Course - R0422

This break is especially designed for those who are retired and looking for an accessible place to rest, recuperate and recharge. Ammerdown provides comfortable en-suite bedrooms, beautiful gardens and the opportunity to enjoy delicious meals in good company. The chapel offers a space for private reflection and daily prayer and the lounge a pre-dinner drink or chat over a jigsaw.

There is a mix of optional activities such as talks, films, a quiz and a book club discussion, as well as the opportunity to learn new craft skills. The breaks foster real community and many enjoy them so much they return regularly.

Regulations willing, there will be trips out to local places of interest.

CUPPA AND A CHAT

Monday 31 January, Monday 28 February, Monday 28 March

2pm - 4pm

FREE

Day Course - D0922

According to Age UK, more than 2 million people in England over the age of 75 live alone, and more than a million older people say they go for over a month without speaking to a friend, neighbour or family member. It's shockingly easy to be left feeling alone and vulnerable, which can lead to depression and a serious decline in physical health and wellbeing.

The team here at Ammerdown care greatly about tackling loneliness in the local area. We have set up a monthly support group in an attempt to form a safe and welcoming environment for individuals to come and talk to others and enjoy afternoon tea and cake in our beautiful facility.

TLC Days for the Retired

These days invite those who are retired to enjoy a talk or activity, a two course cooked lunch, an optional chapel service and time to chat and enjoy each others company.

Please arrive by 10am, day ends at 2pm.

Thursday 27 January - £15

Day Course D0122

Helena Softley's Fun Singing. Helena will lead us, with voice and guitar, in popular songs from the past.

Thursday 24 February - £15

Easter Retreat

A Great Shout Waiting to be Born! (Living Easter in the 21st Century)

Dave Tomlinson

Thursday 14 April - Sunday 17 April

Please arrive for noon, retreat ends after lunch.

R - £390 NR - £240

Course Code - R0822

Against a background of events like the pandemic, the refugee crisis, and the climate emergency, this retreat asks what the Holy Week and Easter story means for us today – personally and collectively. Can we re-imagine its significance, discover fresh possibilities for a new context?

Using art, multimedia presentations and stimulating talks and group discussions, we will explore what it might mean to live Easter, to practise resurrection – to unleash fresh hope and joy on ourselves and our world.
